

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Gordon Mydland has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, to the caring and sharing with family and friends, and to the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great place in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Gordon Mydland, Judge of the Third Judicial Circuit of the state of South Dakota, has chosen to retire having ably served fourteen years on the bench; and,

WHEREAS, Gordon has served his country in the U.S. Navy, and his state as a state senator from 1963-68, state attorney general from 1969-73, and now as circuit judge; and,

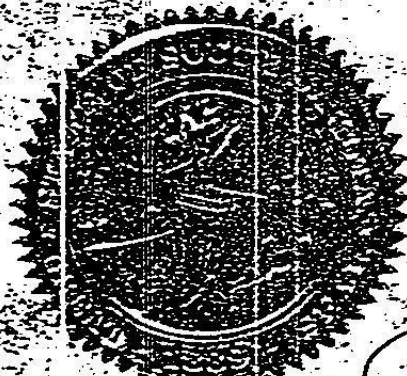

WHEREAS, Gordon and his lovely wife, Lorrie, will now be able to travel, teach or raise horses to occupy their time; and,

WHEREAS, Gordon has made major contributions to society during his lifetime in the fields of business and law, so it is fitting that we honor him on this momentous occasion:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, June 5, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends, relatives and colleagues in wishing Gordon many more years of health, happiness and a rewarding retirement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

THOMAS G. LECKEY, DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE
